Treatment Centers Overview

There are 11 FNIHB-funded treatment centers in Ontario, 10 of which offer inpatient services with a combined 132 beds and one offers an outpatient facility with space for 288 patients. There are two funding streams available, the National Native Alcohol and Drug Addiction Program (NNADAP) and the National Youth Solvent Abuse Program (NYSAP). Both programs seek to strengthen the links between the residential treatment and the community based prevention component of NNADAP and other health services to ensure that client needs are met before, during and after treatment.

Mental Wellness Teams

Funding is provided at the Tribal Council Level to support enhancement of existing Mental Wellness Teams (MWT). MWT's are community-based, client-centred, multi-disciplinary teams that provide a variety of culturally-safe mental wellness services and supports to First Nations communities using a range of service models that can include crisis response, capacity-building, trauma-informed care, land-based care, prevention, early intervention and screening, after care, and care coordination with provincial health and social services. The combination of services provided and composition of an individual team reflects community needs and priorities. Team members can include coordinators, Elders, cultural workers, psychologists, social workers and therapists, Resolution Health Support workers, and substance use workers.
